

Department of State

§ 171.43

advised and informed when the review will be completed. Except in unusual circumstances, this review will be completed no later than 30 days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after receipt of the request to amend a record.

(d) In reviewing a record in response to a request to amend, the Department shall determine whether the record is relevant and necessary to accomplish a purpose of the agency and shall incorporate the criteria of accuracy, relevance, timeliness, and completeness of the record in that review.

(e) If the office responsible for the record agrees with an individual's request to amend a record, it shall:

(1) Advise the individual in writing;

(2) Amend the record accordingly; and

(3) If an accounting of disclosure has been made, advise all previous recipients of the record of the amendment and its substance.

(f) If the office responsible for the record, after an initial review of a request to amend a record disagrees with all or any portion of the requested amendment, an officer at the Deputy Assistant Secretary level or equivalent, shall:

(1) Advise the individual of its refusal and the reasons for it; and

(2) Inform the individual that she or he may request a further review in accordance with subpart G.

Subpart E—Ethics in Government Provisions

§ 171.40 Covered employees.

(a) Officers and employees, including special government employees, whose positions are classified at grades GS-16 and above or at any equivalent rate under another pay schedule;

(b) Officers or employees in a position determined by the Director of the Office of Government Ethics to be of equal classification to GS-16;

(c) Employees in the excepted service in positions which are of a confidential or policy-making nature unless an employee or groups of employees are exempted by the Director of the Office of Government Ethics;

(d) The designated agency official who acts as the Department's Ethics Officer; and

(e) Individuals who are nominated for positions requiring Senate confirmation by the President but who are not subsequently confirmed by the Senate.

§ 171.41 Identifying information.

(a) The name and/or position title of the Department of State official who is subject of the request,

(b) The time period covered by the report requested, and

(c) Completion of an Ethics Request Form.

§ 171.42 Time limits.

(a) Reports shall be made available to the public within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the Department.

(b) Reports shall be retained by the Department and made available to the public for a period of six (6) years. The exceptions are those reports which are filed by individuals who are nominated for office by the President and are not confirmed by the Senate; those reports will be retained and made available for a one-year period.

§ 171.43 Access to, and use of, reports.

The Attorney General is authorized to bring a civil action against any person who obtains or uses a financial disclosure report:

(a) For any unlawful purpose;

(b) For any commercial purpose, other than for news or community dissemination to the general public;

(c) For determining or establishing the credit rating of any individual; or

(d) For use, directly or indirectly, in the solicitation of money for any political, charitable, or other purpose.

The court may assess a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000 against any person who obtains or uses the reports for these prohibited purposes; an additional remedy as available under statutory or common law may also be assessed at the discretion of the court.
